

Unique European Solidarity Corps opportunity in the Netherlands Assisting teacher in dutch, craftsmanship, sports, culture and/or sustainability at primary school in the Netherlands.

Project Description

The European Solidarity Corps volunteer will assist in teaching children (4-12 year) in dutch, craftsmanship, sports, culture, video making, programming and/or sustainability. This will take place during class lessons when some extra hands are needed, e.g. for reading and further small group activities, also after school.

Depending on the interests and talents of the volunteer, he/she can help the professional with cultural activities, for example music, dance, acting, craftsmanship or physical education. During the summer holidays, the ESC volunteer will assist with a summercamp.

Stichting Talentis Primary School De Beemden (120 children of 4-12 years old). It has a "taalklas". It is a multicultural school with immigrants (refugees) from for example Syria, Ukraine. As Dutch is a challenge for those children, they have a special language class to learn Dutch and other education to catch up with the Dutch children. Therefore, extra attention is needed. Also, attention is given to the structuring of the thinking steps that children make, and the promotion of a reflective, research-oriented attitude. Challenges are offered to the children, so that they are actively involved in their own learning process and thus also directed towards their own development. Pillars of the school are culture, like music and dance, and sports. Their core values are trust, responsibility, discover, creativity and cooperation.

Accommodation, food, pocket money and transport will be arranged by European Solidarity Corps Transport: You will have access to a bicycle.

Volunteer profile Flexible, independent, open-minded, social, energetic and creative youngsters who have affinity with children and are interested in music, dance and craftsmanship. Furthermore, he or she likes to organize and plan events and teach children.

Duration: 12 months as per August/September 2022
